WELLS RESIGNS FROM CITY FORCE

Veteran Detective Decides to Quit Hard Work and

Frank M. Wells is Thursday closing his career aspa detective of the local police department.

With the close of the day he retires from the plain clothes force on which he has served for twenty-five years. . He is the oldest man in point of service in the entire police department. Thirty years ago he donned a patrolman's uniform, and after serving in that capacity for five years he became a detective. Wells and the late Capt, W. H. Smith were the city's first two detectives. They were partners for eighteen years When Smith became captain of de-tectives Wells and the late A. L. Clark worked as partners. Then it was Krug and Wells, then Wells and Turner, and for the past few days it has been Wells vidual." and Brown,

BIG ADVANCE IN FLOUR PRICES

Flour prices are not looking very en couraging to the average consumer about this time. Today's visit to the mills shows that all grades of flour cost from 30 to 40 cents more per barrel than they did on the last visit of the market reporter. Meal and grits keep in line with flour, and a like advance is noted, the advances ranging from 13 to 25 cents

Other wholesale prices show no changes, except that eggs have come down to 35 cents per dozen; corn has advanced from $2 to $3.10 per bushel, and some declines are noted in the hide market, dry flint being 20@220 instead of 23627c, and dry salted at 18620d instead of 22624c. Beasway has advanced 12.f-26 from 22@25a to 25@30c.

In the Markethouse. Only two changes are noted in mar kethouse quotations, eggs having fallen cents per quart, the last published que-tation being 40 cents.

TALKS TO BOYS

more than sixty boys of the various high schools and preparatory schols of Chattanooga were guests of members of the Rotary club at their weekly meeting Thursday. The boys were given an insight into the workings of the Rotary club, each one being presented with a little booklet entitled. "A Working Knowledge of Rotary."
Following an introductory by Champ S. Andrews, chairman of the commit-S. Andrews, chairman of the commit-tee having in charge the entertainment of the school boys, who explained the purpose of the club in having various delegations present at the meetings, Fire and Police Commissioner T. C. Betterton was introduced and made a talk on character.

In speaking of the many fine things that the Rotarians have done for the community he said they had done nothing finer than to bring into its activities the boys of Chattanooga who were destined to be future Rotarians, Mr. Betterton spoke on the necessity of building character. He said that no matter "what we do, we have to build a character. We can create anything else, but we can't create character. It has to be built by the indis

Mr. Betterton's talk preved an interesting feature of the meeting and in line with the inspiring addresses that have been delivered, especially to the boys of Chattane

Sympathy for Al Rogers. Resolutions were passed on a stand-ing vote expressing the sympathies of the club to Al Rogers and members of his family on account of the liness which has proven a source of anxiety to his many friends, and especially to the members of the Rotary club, in which organization he has been one of its most active members. Warren L. Rohr, who has just returned from the district conference at Rock, made a brief report, Little wherein he told of the compliment paid the Chattanooga delegation, and especially one of its members, Champ S. Andrews, who presented the service flag to the Little Rock club on behalf of the Chattanooga club.

Big Baked Potatoes. A feature of the menu was the serving of great big baked potatoes and another big potato for seed purposes, which were furnished with the compliments of Rotarian Arthur Lessly. Announcement was made to the effect that a prize will be offered for the best results obtained from growing the potato furnished at Thursday's meeting. It is the purpose of the club to pool their crop and present the product to one or more deserving charitable institutions following the exhibit, at which time the prizes will be awarded. A telegram was read fro milaxen J. Titus, of the Northern Pacific vallend following the Pacific railroad felicitating the club on their interest in potatoes. Mr. Titus also referred to the membership certificates which had been sent the members of the club with the compilments of his road. The entertainment feature of the day was several vocal selection which were sung by Victor Gollbart. His first was "Somewhere in France." This was followed by a negro dialect song, both of which were greatly en-Joyed by his audience.
